History Redux

Revisionist History Study Group

Monday, June 1 7 – 8:30 pm

Free for members, $5 for non-members.

This month's book is Atlantis: Alien Visitation and Genetic Manipulation, by Michael Tsarion, an eclectic researcher who has taken the study of the origins of the human race back to the time when off-worlders landed on Earth and started manipulating DNA to create a slave race.

Referencing Biblical texts, ancient texts from around the world, and indigenous oral traditions, he recounts the story of rebellion, the creation of Atlantis and Lemuria, the struggle between the Serpent Masters and their created slave-race, resulting in a nuclear war that destroyed the technology of the Serpent Masters and almost destroyed Earth.

You need not have read the book to attend the discussion, where those who have read the book will recount to the others what they remember. This is a good way to learn complex information, and helps everyone get a better understanding of the material.

New Books Available for Members to Borrow

Respectful visitors, whether members or not, are always welcome to read books in our Library, when we are open. Email protocol is always changing; possibly our newsletter is getting dinged because of third-party links to Amazon. So, for the books below, we are linking to our website, from where you can go to Amazon if you want more information about a specific book. (you can always visit us to look at the real thing!)

Speaking with Nature: Awakening to the Deep Wisdom of the Earth
By Sandra Ingerman and Llyn Roberts (2015)

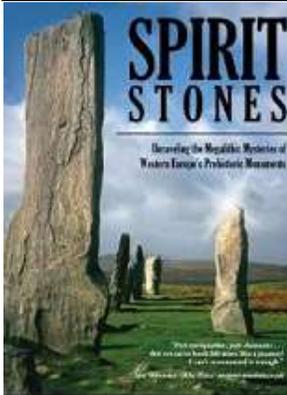

Shamanic teachers Ingerman and Roberts provide a wealth of experiential practices that allow everyone to access the spirit of nature, whether through animals and plants, or through other nature beings such as Mist or Sand. These transformative wisdom teachings from their own conversations with nature spirits, such as Snowy Owl, Mushroom, and Glacial Silt, reveal powerful lessons about the reader's role in the healing of the Earth, allowing each of us to connect with the creative power of nature. They also discuss the hidden worlds of the Star Beings and Spirit of the Land.

Norse Goddess Magic: Trancework, Mythology, and Ritual

By Alice Karlsdóttir (2015)

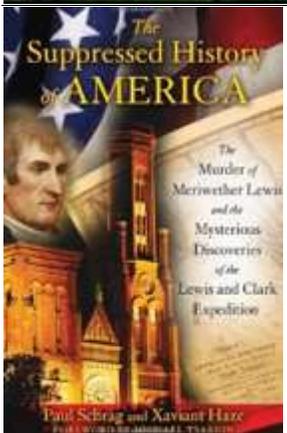

Karlsdottir used trancework and meditation with research on folklore and the Eddas to assemble a working knowledge of Norse goddesses. Karlsdottir uses trancework to uncover the personalities and powers of 13 Norse deities: the goddess Frigg the Allmother, wife of Odin, and the 12 or Aesir goddesses, associated with her, such as Sjofn the peacemaker, Eir the Healer, and Vor the Wisewoman. She shares their appearances in the Eddas and Germanic mythology and explains the meanings of their names and their connections to the roles of women in Old Norse society. She provides instructions to invoke each goddess . and a comprehensive guide to ritual tranceworking, allowing anyone to experience spiritual beings and develop spirit-work relationships with them.

The Spirit Stones: Unraveling the Megalithic Mysteries of Western Europe's Prehistoric Monuments

Dianne Ebertt Beeaff (2011)

Nearly a decade in the making, award-winning author Dianne Ebertt Beeaff's transcending new book, Spirit Stones, explores the enduring lessons of the British Isles and Brittany's prehistoric monoliths, stone circles and burial chambers. Beeaff's fastidious research, first-hand accounts and prevailing love of history capture not only the architectural essence of these archeological treasures, but also their spiritual strength.

The Suppressed History of America: The Murder of Meriwether Lewis and the Mysterious Discoveries of the Lewis and Clark Expedition

By Paul Schrag and Xaviant Haze (2011)

Meriwether Lewis discovered ancient civilizations, strange monuments, “nearly white, blue-eyed” Indians, and evidence that the American continent was visited long before the first European settlers arrived. And he was murdered to keep it all secret. The America taught in schools is not the America discovered by early explorers. The authors uncover the discoveries of Spanish conquistadors and Olmec stories of contact with European-like natives, sophisticated ancient civilizations in North America and the Caribbean, the fountain of youth, and a long-extinct race of giants. Lewis and Clark's finds infuriated powerful interests in Washington--including the Smithsonian Institution--culminating in the murder of Meriwether Lewis.

Library Wish List

- A color print/scanner/copier. Fax is nice, but not used very often, maybe twice in the past ten years! It does not have to be particularly fast. We don't need another printer that doesn't work very well or is missing something.
- Sheet protectors. We have lots of pamphlets that need to be protected with sleeves.
