We will be closed tomorrow (Saturday) and Sunday, December 24 and December 25

Another shameless plug for money

We've been charging $35 a year for membership for many years. Once again, we are hundreds of dollars short on next month's rent. We cannot continue at this rate.

We are considering raising our membership fee to $40 a year – a very modest raise.

It would seem like, if our Library is worth supporting at $35, it would be worth $40.

We'd like to hear from you. Would a measly $5/year keep you from joining?

Are there some benefits that you would be willing to pay more for? Maybe a say in what books we keep or get rid of? Maybe a say in where the Library itself is going?

Please respond to this message, or email us directly at contact@SeattleMetaphysicalLibrary.org

And please send a contribution for our rent fund.

The Seven Archetypal Stones: Their Spiritual Powers and Teachings
by Nicholas Pearson

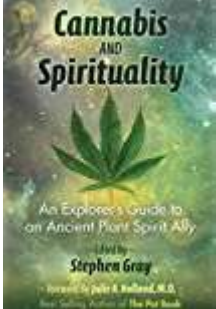

Integrating gemstone lore from around the world with modern mineral science, Nicholas Pearson guides readers on a journey into the inner realm of the mystery teachings of the mineral kingdom, a journey that mirrors the soul's path to perfection. He reveals the archetypal wisdom embodied within 7 essential crystal and gemstone mentors--obsidian, jade, lapis lazuli, emerald, quartz, amethyst, and diamond--examining each stone's mythological, historical, and cultural associations in tandem with their crystalline structure and chemical composition

The Nine Waves of Creation: Quantum Physics, Holographic Evolution, and the Destiny of Humanity

by Carl Johan Calleman Ph.D. Foreword by Barbara Hand Clow

Changes in social consciousness correspond with the activation of new Waves of Creation emanating from the center of the universe that influence human thinking. Presenting a quantum-holographic perspective on world history and human consciousness, Carl Calleman explains the quantum physics behind the Waves of the Mayan Calendar system and how these Waves allow us to understand the shifting eras on Earth as well as the possibilities of the future.

Workshop Forming

Muscle Testing (Kinesiology)

The book POWER VS. FORCE by David R. Hawkins M.D. Ph.D, uses muscle-testing to answer many questions about ourselves and the world we are in. Kinesiology can be used as a truth detector, and diagnostic tool. This requires at least two people, and time and effort to develop the skill. It helps to have at least three people, so we can do double-blind testing where neither party knows the answer while doing the testing.

If you are interested in forming a group that meets once a month to work on developing your skill, and then using that skill to explore your self, your relationships, and your world, send an email to newsletter@SeattleMetaphysicalLibrary.org, and we can work on finding a mutually acceptable time and date to meet.

This will start after the beginning of 2017, in January or February.

From Around the Web

If you've been as frustrated with search engines as I have (I've written about this several times already), you might want to keep an eye on these two. Unfortunately, they are mostly focused on news, but with the threat to the independent press being propounded daily by the corporate media, it might be a good idea to download your own info, anyway.

Fetch news is a news aggregator that already has results for a wide variety of sources. It already has a strong collection of subjects, or you can enter your own search terms.
